2023 UW HELP EMMA D. BOETTIGER SCHOLARSHIP

PURPOSE

The UW HELP Emma D. Boettiger Scholarship is established to encourage the pursuit of a post-secondary degree in the UW System. The scholarship will award two academic scholarships to Wisconsin high school students who plan to enroll at a University of Wisconsin System institution beginning Fall 2023 term. The scholarships are given in the memory of Emma Boettiger's sister, Nettie Dieckmann, and nephew, Freddie Dieckmann.

AWARD

Scholarship is a four-time award of $2,000 (awarded in two disbursements each year over the course of four consecutive years - $1,000 for the fall semester and $1,000 for the spring semester). Recipients will need to provide proof of enrollment each year, once for the fall term and again for the spring term before scholarship funds are disbursed.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

UW HELP utilizes a holistic review process to determine the UW HELP Emma D. Boettiger Scholarship recipients. Students interested in applying for the UW HELP Emma D. Boettiger Scholarship should fill out the application form. The UW HELP Scholarship Committee will monitor the selection process.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Friday, March 24, 2023
